Organizing Your Investments

Are your financial records in order? Are your ownership and account documents easy to find? Who are your professional advisors? What are their phone numbers?

What if you are in a serious accident tomorrow? Could someone step in and handle your daily affairs while you recovered? What if you should die tomorrow? Could your spouse or heirs easily settle your estate? Or, will they find a jumble of unorganized papers scattered throughout your house? At your attorney's or accountant's office? In your safe deposit box?

This Investment Organizer was designed to help you answer these questions. It will definitely make the job easier for anyone else who needs to manage or settle your affairs. But, more importantly, it will help you manage your own affairs more easily, with greater peace-of-mind. You'll reduce the chance of missing the maturity dates for your CDs, or the interest payment dates for your bonds.

This organizer is very comprehensive; not every page may apply to you. Don't try to complete it all at once. Relax and take your time. Remember to make changes as they occur. We recommend that you update everything at least once each year.
